

III-5A. Does This Show Fairness?

Review

Fairness means _____ the _____ of a _____.

Directions: Read each example. Circle YES if it shows fairness or NO if it doesn't. Be ready to discuss your answers.

1. Charlie has to do yard work every week to get an allowance from his parents. YES NO
2. The kids are misbehaving at recess, so they lose 5 minutes off their time. YES NO
3. The girls go first to lunch every day. YES NO
4. The baseball team you are playing against gets a homerun in the last inning and wins the game. YES NO
5. Tony is allowed to use a calculator to help him do his math. YES NO
6. Amanda's neighbor says that he will pay her for weeding the garden, but while she is there he asks her to mow the lawn and does not pay her any extra. YES NO
7. Zach is standing in line for a video game at the arcade when an older boy cuts in front of him. YES NO
8. Frank says he will split the cost of a pizza with Ray, but when the pizza comes he finds something else to do and never pays anyone for the pizza. YES NO
9. The kids in a class are very noisy, so the teacher gives them a surprise math test and says it will count for their grade. YES NO
10. Sharon and Michelle agree that they will work together on a science project, but Michelle always seems to have something else to do and Sharon ends up doing most of the project. YES NO

Review
Fairness
Direction
bad luck,
of bad luck

1. losing
2. havin
3. skippi
4. trying
5. losing
6. not h
instea
7. losing
8. losing
9. drop
10. buyin
11. fallin
12. fallin
13. buyin
14. getti
15. havin