

5. Rudy was supposed to work for two hours cleaning out the garage on Saturday. He was tired after an hour, so he stopped. When his mother asked if he was finished cleaning, he said yes.

4. There was some loose change on a table in the gym and no one was around, so Anthony took the money. Later, a boy came back from class looking for his money. Anthony pretended he didn't know anything about it.

3. Jenny asked her friend Liz if Jason liked her as a girlfriend. Liz knew that Jason couldn't stand her, but she didn't want to hurt her feelings so she said yes.

2. Felix was supposed to answer all of the questions in his reading book, but he forgot. When the teacher asked about it, he said he didn't understand the assignment.

1. Debbie bought three things at the store, but the clerk only charged her for two. Debbie didn't mention it to the clerk.

Directions: Read each situation below. Decide how the person involved could be more honest in his or her response. Write your answer on the line.

The opposite of honesty is _____.

Honesty means _____ or _____ what is _____.

Review

I-2C. Being More Honest

Name _____ Date _____